

RESEARCH PATHWAYS

GENDER STUDIES

Undergraduate research is a cornerstone of our mission at Rutgers-Camden. Our goal is to provide as much support as possible for you to have a successful research experience.

Need funding for a research project or conference travel experience?

We encourage you to visit go.rutgers.edu/ug-grants to see what funding opportunities are available. Currently, you can receive up to $500.00 to offset research expenses and conference travel expenses.

Looking for a research project?

If you know you want to get involved in research, but are unsure of where to start, visit go.rutgers.edu/curca-hub to view by subject area and keyword the different research projects seeking undergraduate researchers.

Who are the faculty? What do they research? What are their interests?

- » Dr. Gail Caputo (gcaputo@rutgers.edu): Social issues related to criminology and public policy, particularly women in conflict with the law
- » Dr. Joan Maya Mazelis (mazelis@camden.rutgers.edu): The study of urban poverty and social ties, using qualitative interview methods to explore the meaning and understanding people have of their own situations
- » Dr. Shauna Shames (shauna.shames@rutgers.edu): American political behavior, with a focus on race, gender, and politics
- » Dr. Lee Ann Westman (lew80@camden.rutgers.edu): Mary Jane Holmes, a 19th-century American woman writer of domestic fiction
